COLUMBIA

Local Young Man Finds Success in California-Entertainment Given by Class in Elecution and Physical Cul-

It is always pleasing to Iknow that young men from Columbia, now located in some of the business centers of other states. have ben successful in reaching high positions in the business world. Some years ago E. Palmer Tucker, then but little more than a boy left Columbia and went to Californit, where he has two brothers older than himself. Always fond of music, he naturally turned his attention to that branch of business, entering a music store and working his way up until he held the honorable position of vice president of the Pacific Music company. In April, 1907, he severed his connection with the Company to accept a position with the Wiley B. Allen company of Los Angeles, and he now holds the position of manager for the company. He has a pleasant home in Los Angeles, His success is due to his thorough business methods and tact.

Herbert Little of Meriden was in town last week on a short visit with relatives here.

Entertainment Pleased.

The entertainment given at Yeoman's hall on Friday evening of last week by the pupils in Mrs. W. H. Harris' class in elocution and physical culture, under her direction, was first-class in all respects. There was a good attendance, and those present were well pleased with the entertainment, which consisted of recitations and exercises in physical culture, the latter being accompanied by music on the plano by Mrs. Mary G. Tucker, and her daughter, Dora, The music was a pleasant feature of the entertainment, and the exercises were frequently applicated by the audience. The whole class did themselves credit, and showed the effects of the thorough training they had received in their twelve lesson course. A small admission fee was charged, which netted about $7, which goes into the Sunday school treasury. Entertainment Pleased.

Do You Want a Fine Piano Free?

FIRST PRIZE

Second Prize-$150 Certificate of Credit. Other Prizes, see below. OVER $8,000 WORTH OF ADDITIONAL PRIZES

NO CHARGE OF ANY KIND TO ENTER. YOU HAVE THE SAME OPPCATUNITY AS ANYONE ELSE TO WIN. Wouldn't you like a fine, new $365 Piano? Solve this puzzle picture. You have the same, fair opportunity as anyone clas to win. This is the most liberal offer ever made to those desiring a piano. It is a gigantic publicity contest. The Reason: We have recently moved into our new home, a beautiful fire-proof building of five floors. Since 1872 we have labored to give the finest possible value for the money, and our business is built up on this principle. Therefore, we look with pardonable pride upon this, our latest achievement, as the necessity of a building like this proves conclusively that the public appreciate the value received here. Our new plane warerooms in this building are splendidly appointed, and we want to introduce them to the music-loving people of this section, therefore instead of spending the $8,000 (the plane manufacturers' appropriation) in the usual way, we want to put it where it will do plane buyers the most good; hence, we are conducting this gigantic contest. Cut out the little pieces and paste them together and you will have two famous American Generals; one a famous General of the Revolutionary War; the other a famous General of the Civil War who led the Northern forces. The most artistic correct answer will be given the $365
